

ABOUT THE COVER: “MISS MEATFACE & HER MEATMAID”

KAT TORONTO

Here we see the Lady of the House Miss Meatface seated with her loyal Meatmaid in the MeatPalace parlor. What is a Meatmaid you ask? A Meatmaid is a particularly special kind of dedicated and loyal companion that originated in the Miss Meatface universe but has now become synonymous with any person who enjoys serving their ‘Beloved In Charge’ whilst dressed head to toe in latex, PVC, satin, leather, or any other similar kind of material that brings an overwhelming sense of joy and pleasure to those who wear it. It is the Meatmaid’s job to cater to the every whim of their ‘Beloved In Charge’, be it the most dreadfully boring of tasks around the house, or be it the intimate act of polishing the boots of their ‘Beloved in Charge’ (an activity which the Meatmaid takes a particularly special delight in!). To be able to call oneself a Meatmaid is something that a very select few are worthy and capable of doing and it is a coveted title to all who are granted it.
